your checkbook balance.

Electronic Check Conversion means your check is used as a source of information and then it is used to make a one-time electronic payment from your account. The check itself is not the method of payment. You may authorize a merchant or other payee to make a one-time electronic payment from your checking account using information from your check to: (i) Pay for purchases (ii) Pay bills. If you do not want your check to be used for Electronic Check Conversion, the payee may require that you substitute another form of payment (for example, cash, debit card, or credit card).

Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transaction(s)

In case of errors or questions about your Electronic Transaction(s), please contact us as indicated below as soon as you can. Also, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong, or if you need more information about a Transaction listed on your statement or receipt please contact us.
